Meeting Strategies Worldwide Hires Mary Cameron and Britta Ehnebuske

PORTLAND, OREGON—Meeting Strategies Worldwide welcomes the addition of Mary Cameron as a Project Manager, and Britta Ehnebuske as a Registration and Speaker Assistant, to the company.

Mary Cameron joins Meeting Strategies with more than 20 years experience in the design and management of local, regional and national conferences and events, including corporate, customer and public events. Her experience includes working with diverse industries including energy, high tech, trucking, and the medical field for the planning and execution of their unique meeting and event needs. Mary served 5 years on the Board of Directors for Meeting Professionals International, Oregon Chapter, and was awarded Planner of the Year for 1994-95.

Britta Ehnebuske, a recent graduate of Southwestern University, comes to Meeting Strategies Worldwide from Austin, Texas. Her previous experience in volunteer coordination for South by Southwest, a highly attended showcase and networking conference for musicians, filmmakers, and the technology industry, will be instrumental in providing a seamless registration and speaker experience for our clients.

Portland-based Meeting Strategies Worldwide is a comprehensive conference management company recognized nationally and internationally as a leader in environmentally responsible meetings.
